WEDNESDAY, DEC. 10, 1879. It has become an exceedingly common thing for some time past to call attention to Democratic in- TENNESSEE RIVER IMPROVEconsistency, so common that it attracts no attention whatever; but we came across a little item a day or two ago, the temptation to produce which is too great for us to resist, so we will do it, trusting to be forgiven for the supererogation. If causes the Democratic soul to grow great with hely indignation and threaten to burst its chains it is that of nepotism in official life. We all remember the perfect storm of denunciation which use to fall upon the shoulders of Gen. Grant, for what they chose to term his nepotism. We have been watching anxiously for some of these virtuous individuals to have something to say about the same thing in Governor Robinson. It is needless to add that we have been watching in Observe how it is with him He draws a salary of $10,000 per call another convention at an early annum; D. C. Robinson (his son) gets $3,500; A.
